Bring your vision to life with the elevated products and services you deserve.

From luxury homes and boutique venues to restaurants and historic renovations, Revival D+D provides more than flooring. We offer a full spectrum of architectural wood materials — including custom paneling, mantels, millwork, and handcrafted furniture — produced in both reclaimed and new wood.

Whether specifying premium prefinished planks or sourcing custom reclaimed materials, we work closely with project teams to align materials with the design intent, construction schedule, and installation realities of the build.

When working with design/build teams, we review each project through the lens of proportion, flow, and overall scale — identifying where material selections can elevate both the structure and the story of a space. From flooring to feature walls, our goal is to bring cohesion, character, and craftsmanship to the finished environment.
